

PUBLIC SEMINAR

IN GREEK AND ENGLISH

The Role of Eleftherios Venizelos in the Asia Minor Expedition and its Outcome

By Dr. Constantine Hatzidimitriou

The 2023 Christos Mantzios Visiting Scholar Award of the Australian Institute of Macedonian Studies

MONDAY 23RD OCTOBER 2023 | 6:30 P.M

LYCEUM THEATRE OF ALPHINGTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL
18 OLD HEIDELBERG RD, ALPHINGTON VIC 3078

Dr. Hatzidimitriou will hold a seminar involving Greek language teachers, Victorian poets, writers, journalists, and students as well as the members of the Branch of the National Foundation of Research “Eleftherios K. Venizelos”. Dr. Hatzidimitriou will be speaking in English about “The Role of Eleftherios Venizelos in the Asia Minor Expedition and its Outcome” based on American (U.S.A) sources. Historian Terry Stavridis will elaborate on Venizelos and the Asia Minor expedition from the British and Australian sources. The event will be moderated by Prof. A. M. Tamis. Members of the public interested in this historical topic are also welcome to attend.

Presented by the Australian Institute of Macedonian Studies in collaboration with the Greek Orthodox Community of Melbourne and Victoria, Alphington Grammar and the Branch of the National Foundation of Research “Eleftherios Venizelos”.

 Australian Institute of Macedonian Studies