

PUBLIC LECTURE

IN GREEK AND ENGLISH

Who Destructed Christianity in Asia Minor?

By Dr. Constantine Hatzidimitriou

The 2023 Christos Mantzios Visiting Scholar Award of the Australian Institute of Macedonian Studies

FRIDAY 27TH OCTOBER 2023 | 6:30 P.M

LYCEUM THEATRE OF ALPHINGTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL

18 OLD HEIDELBERG RD, ALPHINGTON VIC 3078

Dr. Hatzidimitriou will present a public lecture on the topic “Who Destructed Christianity in Asia Minor?”. This lecture targets students, teachers, and the broader public.

Dr. Hatzidimitriou holds a Ph.D. in Byzantine, Ottoman, and Modern Greek history from Columbia University. He has been recognized as a Gennadius Fellow at the American School in Athens and has served as an Educational Counsellor at the US Consulate in Thessaloniki. Currently, he is the managing editor of the American Journal of Contemporary Hellenic Issues and the Journal of Modern Hellenism. With three published books and numerous scholarly articles to his name, Dr. Hatzidimitriou continues to make significant contributions to the fields of Byzantine and Modern Greek history and education.

Presented by the Australian Institute of Macedonian Studies in collaboration with the Greek Orthodox Community of Melbourne and Victoria, Alphington Grammar and the Branch of the National Foundation of Research “Eleftherios Venizelos”.

 Australian Institute of Macedonian Studies